

For Immediate Release
May 22, 2007
Fort Collins, CO USA

Contact: Larry Padgett, Executive Director
970-4224-1010 or larry@c4fap.org

Wild Gray Stallion, Pam Nickoles, Arvada, CO

INTERNATIONAL FINE ART PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT OPENS AT DENVER INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT MAY 25 – JULY 29, 2007

A collection of international fine art photography is being exhibited at Denver International Airport (DIA) in the A concourse and terminal galleries beginning May 25, 2007. The Center for Fine Art Photography is presenting a unique showcase of 150 images from established and emerging photographers throughout the world. Varying from traditional black and white film to digitally altered creations, this remarkable exhibit features selected prints from almost 4,000 images that were submitted for this exhibition.

The DIA Invitational is the last of four exhibitions The Center for Fine Art Photography has displayed at DIA since September 2006. The exhibitions on Concourse A, C and in the Terminal Gallery are located on the mezzanine level. The galleries are open 24 hours a day. It is estimated that this exhibit will be viewed by thousands of people each day until the exhibit ends July 29.

Last Night, Heinz Baumann, Zurich, Switzerland

The Center for Fine Art Photography in Fort Collins, Colorado, is located in the Museum of Contemporary Art building in historic Old Town. The Center is a non-profit arts organization that receives support from public and private donations, and sponsorships by Hewlett-Packard, Denver International Airport, Fine Print Imaging, and LifePics Professional Services.

Additional print-quality images are available at www.c4fap.org/pr/dia4.

###